With open, flowing living spaces, windows on three sides giving plenty of ventilation and natural light and three bedrooms, this unique apartment feels more like your own single level house. Traditional double-brick construction provides peace and privacy from neighbours (only one common wall) and the building includes lovely art deco touches and high ceilings. Immaculately presented with new timber floors and carpets, plantation shutters and freshly painted throughout the home features a sleek gas kitchen with granite benchtops, modern bathroom plus separate toilet and is fully air-conditioned. A sunlit
